STAUNTON.

GOOD NEWS FROM THE STAUNTON DISTRICT.—A WORKING CAMPAIGN CLUB ORGANIZED—RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

AUGUST 31, 1882.

The Democrats have organized their campaign club here, starting with about 100 members who make business and are determined to do their share, and more if necessary, towards the election of Colonel O'Farrell. The others are: Dr. A. M. Fauntleroy; President: Jacob Baumgardner, secretary; J. E. Rollins, treasurer; John T. Long, sergeant-at-arms; W. H. H. Lynn, chairman of the Executive Committee; and Colonel W. L. Baumgardner, chairman of the Finance Committee. Among the vice-presidents are such well-known and staunch partisans as Hon. A. H. Stuart, Judge J. W. Sheffey, Hon. Marshall Hanger, R. W. Burke, John N. Cope, and others.

The good results to the Democracy of the discussion last Monday are more noticeable every day. The men who were charged from Paul to O'Farrell by what was seen and heard that day can be convicted by the score. One Paul man had intended to subscribe $100 to his campaign fund. He says now not only will he not give a dollar, but he will vote for O'Farrell.

The Democracy is in fine spirits, and the Readjusters decidedly under luck.

That was a narrow escape that the passengers on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad Tuesday morning made about a mile east of Waynesboro. From some cause the switch of the gravelled was misplaced, and the train ran on it and off, the engine and passenger car fortunately falling on the upper side instead of down the embankment on the lower. The damage was considerable, and the passengers frightened almost out of their wits. The train due here at 4:55 A. M. did not arrive until near midday.

GERALD AND PAUL IN HIGHLAND.—A NEW SECRETARY FOR THE AUGUSTA FAIR—HORSE-KILLING.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

August 31, 1882.

A gentleman just from Highland heard the whole discussion at Monterey Tuesday between Col. O'Farrell and Captain Paul. He reports a large crowd present, and great interest and excitement manifested; but no one caught up in disorder as yet was here in Stanton Monday.

The Washington contingent was far from his best, and could not hold his yelling corps in hand. He was set back from the first, and the arrangements were being made by the former supporters of his son, Mr. John W. Stephenson, on behalf of Col. O'Farrell. The Duke of Richmond, and he had gone back on him.

At a temperature meeting recently held in Alexandria speeches were made by Ex-Governor William Smith, Rev. John Polard, of Richmond, and Rev. D. G. C. Butt of the Methodist church.

The population of Tappahannock is five hundred and sixty-three. The present mayor has held the position for forty years, and it is said he can keep the place as long as he lives.—West Point Star.

A remarkable sunflower has bloomed among the plants of Mrs. W. B. Watson, on Union street. It has eighty-five blossoms on a single stalk, and is a great curiosity in its line.—Douglas Register.

TRIUNFO, ARIZONA, August 31.—Advices to the Star from Hermosillo, Sonora, Mexico, state that General Carbó, accompanied by ex-Governor Torre, are expected hourly in that city with authority from the Federal Government to supersede Governor Ortiz and deprive him of all authority. It is said that five hundred soldiers accompany the envoys. To meet this emergency Ortiz is drafting troops in all directions, and threatens resistance to the last extremity. It is believed that this will precipitate a conflict which will lead to revolution.
